CHURCHES AND RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES.

There are at present, sixteen churches in Detroit; four Catholic, two Episcopalian, one Presbyterian, one Scotch Presbyterian, one Congregational, three Methodist, two Baptist, one German Lutheran, and one Sailor's Bethel.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. ANNE.

This edifice stands on Larned street, between Bates and Randolph streets. It is built of hammered granite, of an excellent quality, and measures 116 feet by 60 feet in the clear. The style of the building is Roman Doric, finished in front with two steeples, ornamented with iron crosses. On the centre of the roof is an octagonal dome, 80 feet high and 30 feet in diameter. The orchestra, situate immediately over the front door, contains one of the largest organs in the United States.

Very Reverend P. Kindekens, Vicar General, Pastor.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY.

This church which is situate on Michigan Grand avenue, corner of Bates street, is a plain frame building with a steeple, measures 30 feet by 40 feet and is found to be too small for its present congregation.

Reverend C. L. Kilroy, Pastor.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The church of St. Mary stands on the corner of Croghan and St. Antoine streets. The erection of this building was commenced in 1241, and though not yet completed, it has been used for religious worship by the congregation since June, 1343. It is intended to finish the building by the addition of a belfrey and steeple with the least possible delay. This edifice is a plain, substantial brick building. Its extreme length 125 feet by 60 feet wide. The Sanctuary is 20 feet wide by 25 feet long, octagon form; on each side of the sanctuary there is a vestry room, 15 feet square. The general style of the building is the Roman and Tuscan, and the whole of the interior is finished in the plainest manner.

Reverend A. K. Kopp, Pastor.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH.

The walls of this massive structure have, during the past year, been carried up to their summit, and the building roofed in. It stands on an eligible site on the north side of Jefferson avenue, abutting on St. Antoine street. The corner stone was laid on the 29th day of June 1844, by the Right Rev. P. P. Lefevere, Catholic Bishop of Detroit. This edifice is built of brick of a superior quality, 160 feet in length by 81 feet wide, and when finished with a belfrey and steeple, will present an imposing appearance. Erected under the direction of Mr. Francis M. Letourno, architect.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES.

Saint Paul's Church is situated in Woodward Avenue, between Larned and Congress streets. Its order of architecture is Gothic. The body of the building is brick, and measures, exclusive of the vestry room, 90 feet by 50 feet. The front is flanked with a buttress at each angle, with two regular offsets, crowned and ornamented with a spiral roof, triangular caps, crockets and halls. The height of the buttress to the top of the spiral roof is 54 feet. The front entrance is a Gothic door, handsomely ornamented with two columns on each side, which group and meet in the centre of the arch above. On each side of the door is a Gothic window, ornamented with an architrave trefoil band. The tower to the top of the pinnacles is 115 feet in height, and 18 feet square at its base. It is composed of two sections—the first finished with a block cornice and battlement ballustrade; and the second section finished with a large cove cornice and castelated ballustrade. The pinnacles that finish the top of this section are two feet and a half square, and twenty-two feet high, crowned and ornamented with a spiral roof, triangular caps, crockets and balls. The flanks of the building contain five Gothic windows, each finished with a pannel ballustrade. The inside contains three galleries—the pulpit and orchestra in the rear, and a superior organ with four stops. The galleries are supported with well finished quatrefoil columns.

The whole presents an imposing appearance, and reflects much credit on the architect.

Right Rev. S. A. McCoskry, Rector; Rev. Horace Hills, Jr., assistant minister.

Christ Church is situated on the south side of Jefferson Avenue, between Hastings and Rivard streets. It is a frame building 72 feet by 42 feet, and has been erected during the past year. Its style of architecture is similar to St. Paul's church, being of the Gothic order. It occupies an eligible site in a retired and pleasant part of Jefferson Avenue, with ornamental trees planted around. Mr. James Busby, architect.

Rev. William N. Lyster, Rector.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

This church is situated on Woodward Avenue, at the corner of Larned street.

Its extreme length is one hundred feet. Length, exclusive of the portico, ninety feet. Breadth of the house, 60 feet. The general style of the house is Grecian. In front is a pediment, supported by six Doric columns, 24 feet in height. The house is built of brick, with two side galleries, a spacious orchestra, and a large library room in the rear. The number of pews is one hundred and forty-six. The pulpit, which is an open one, stands in the rear, and the orchestra in front.

The steeple is one hundred and thirty feetin height, and consists of three sections—a base, a belfrey, and a dial section, with a spire thirty feet in height. Cost of the house, exclusive of the land, $25,000. This edifice is deemed one of the best churches in the western states; and by those who have seen the inside, the beauty and finish of the building have been often noticed. It is arched, and the arch is divided into four panels, enclosing a quadrangle, which overhangs the centre of the floor. The quadrangle is ornamented with two elegrant centre pieces, from each of which is suspended a bronzed chandelier.

Rev. Dr. Duffield, Pastor.

SCOTCH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

This church is situate on the corner of Bates and Farmer streets. It is a new frame building, 71 feet long by 41 wide, and was opened, for religious worship, October, 1844.

Rev. D. Inglis, Pastor.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

This church is situated on the south side of Jefferson Avenue, corner of Beaubien street. It is a neat, substantial brick building, 75 feet by 45 feet, ornamented with a steeple. It was erected during the past year, and the basement opened for divine worship. Erected under the direction of Messrs. Gilbert & Lum, architects.

Rev. H. L. Hammond, Pastor.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The First Methodist Episcopal church is situated on Woodward avenue, corner of Congress street. It is a neat, plain and convenient frame building with a basement.

Reverend Mr. Baughman, Pastor.

SECOND METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Second Methodist Episcopal, or Congress Street church is situated on the north side of Congress street, near Randolph street. It is a neat and substantial brick building, 67 feet long and 42 feet wide with walls 27 feet high. It is provided with a steeple and belfrey, and is to be furnished with a bell. The building was erected during the past year, and the basement opened for public worship. Built under the direction of William R. Curry, architect.

Reverend R. Richards, Pastor.

COLORED M. E. CHURCH.

The colored people, aided by the citizens, have, during the last year, erected a neat and substantial brick building, 50 feet by 40 feet, situated on Lafayette street, between Brush and Beaubien streets. It is so far finished that the congregation have used the basement for public worship, and a day school is taught therein.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The First Baptist Church stands on an elevated site at the corner of Fort and Griswold streets. It is a plain, substantial and well proportioned brick building, 70 feet in length and 50 feet in width, with a steeple and dome of considerable architectural beauty. The general style of the building is Ionic. The steeple is divided into three sections, a base, a belfrey and a dial—the first is square, the second is part octagon, suspended on the corner by pilasters, recessed back on the sides, and supported by fluted Ionic columns; and the third is octagon supported by pilasters. Each section is encompassed by an open balustrade, supported by a pedestal on the angles, and capped with a handsome urn. The whole is crowned with a magnificent dome, the top of which is 100 feet from the ground. Three doors in front form the entrance. The interior contains a spacious gallery, a pulpit, and 66 pews on the first floor. The pulpit, which is an open one, is supported by Ionic columns, having semi-circular stairs, ascending on both sides, and is thrown back into the hall by an arched niche, standing between the two doors leading from the hall into the church. The ceiling is an eliptic arch, with a large sunk panel, in the centre of which there is a centre for suspending a chandelier.

Reverend James Inglis, Pastor.

COLORED AMERICAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

This is a neat frame building, standing on Fort street, between Beaubien and St. Antoine streets, and was built by the voluntary contributions of the citizens generally. The church and congregation assembling there, by the help of their friends, have since raised the building and fitted up the basement, where they have an excellent day school, under the supervision of the Board of Education.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

This church is situated on Monroe Avenue, corner of Farrar street. It is a plain wood building, 50 feet long and 35 feet wide. It was erected by subscription, to which the citizens of every denomination liberally and cheerfully contributed.

Reverend F. Herrmann, Pastor.

BETHEL CHURCH.

Woodbridge street, foot of Wayne street.

By the liberality and exertions of the friends of the sailor in this city, a convenient building situated as above, has been fitted up for the purposes of worship, for the use of sailors, either residing in the city, or visiting our port from time to time. It was dedicated to Almighty God on Thursday, April 2, 1846, under the most favorable auspices, and is designed to be emphatically the "Sailor's Church." The ministers of the different protestant denominations took part in the religious services, which were peculiarly interesting, and the occasion was one that it is believed will not soon be forgotten. The Rev. Geo. Duffield preached the sermon from Acts xxvii: 31, "Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved."

The Bethel flag was hoisted, we are informed, for the first time in Détroit, on the above occasion, where we trust it will continue to wave for all coming time, inviting the wanderer to the Bethel Church, which we hope may prove to many a tempest-tossed mariner, "none other but the house of God, and the gate of Heaven."

It is under the pastoral charge of Rev. Mr. Harrison.

GERMAN EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

A congregation designated as above, meet for public worship in the City Hall, for whose use a brick building is now being erected on Congress street, corner of Rivard street.

Reverend John F. Winkler, Pastor.

DISCIPLES.

A small society of them meet in a school room, near the corner of Congress and Randolph streets, opposite the second Methodist church, every Lord's day.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS, &c.

UNITED STATES BUILDING,

Jefferson Avenue, corner Griswold Street.

This edifice was erected in 1837, by the late Bank of Michigan, and bought at auction for the United States, the 12th of December, 1842, for the sum of $32,000.

It is a handsome building, 57 feet by 40 feet square; the architecture is of the chaste Grecian style, the two fronts being composed of polished stone.

It has two full stories and a basement. The basement is occupied as the Post Office. The main, or first story, is occupied as the United States Court Room and Marshal's Office, the second story is occupied as offices for District Judge, Attorney, Clerk, and a Jury Room. The Court Room is capacious, the ceiling 17 feet high.

The building was erected under the direction of Mr. Charles Lum, of this city.

THE STATE HOUSE,

Was originally built for the District Court of the United States, and the Legislative Council of the Territory; is of brick, and measures 90 feet by 60 feet. The general style of this building is Ionic. In front is a portico supported by six columns. The entablature on the sides is supported by pilasters. The steeple is crowned with a dome and is about 140 feet high. The basement story is divided into offices for the officers of the State government. The first floor contains the Hall of the House of Representatives, Governor's room, library, and office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. On the second floor is the Senate Chamber, office of the Clerk of the Senate, and the committee rooms of both houses.

THE STATE BUILDING,

Griswold Street.

This edifice, some time known as the Detroit Female Seminary, now belongs to the State of Michigan, and is occupied by the offices of the Auditor General, State Treasurer, Board of Internal improvement, &c. The Court of Chancery, and the Supreme Court, also, hold their Courts in this building.

It is a plain, substantial brick building, 56 feet in front, by 40 deep, situated on a rise of ground in Griswold street, in one of the pleasantest parts of the city.

WAYNE COUNTY BUILDING,

Corner Griswold and Congress Streets.

This is a new, substantial, two story brick building, 32 feet in front, by 80 feet deep, erected in 1844. The first story is occupied as offices, by the different county officers, and the second story contains a court room, 50 feet long by 30 feet wide, with a jury room and grand jury room. The contractors for this building were Messrs. Jackson & Perry, of this city.

THE CITY HALL,

Is a two story brick building with hammered stone basement, and is 100 feet long and 50 feet in width. The height of the first story is 16 feet, and from the base to the top of the cornice, 36 feet—on the front of the roof there is a handsome cupola. The principal entrance is from the public square. The first story is occupied by the city market and clerk's office—and the second story is a spacious Hall. The building was erected in the year 1835, and cost about $20,000.
